

Nick's March Fore Mulligans Auction

IN SUPPORT OF

16th May - 16th June 2023

Nick Franklin - right

On the 1st November 2011 Nick was blown up by an improvised explosive device while on patrol in Helmand Province, Afghanistan. At the age of 27 his injury led to the end of his army career.

Whilst going through recovery he was introduced to golf as a game he could learn and play with his prosthetic leg. He was instantly hooked, and now plays to a handicap of 14.2.

Nick, who lives in Grantham, joined the Nottinghamshire in November 2022

On Course Foundation supports the recovery of Wounded, Injured & Sick Service Personnel & Veterans through golf.

As the UK's only golf specific military charity they use the game of golf as a vehicle to rebuild confidence, encourage physical activity, improve mental well-being and to find employment in the golf industry.
